BAND OF GOLD NEWS

NEW CD – UPDATE!

ITS COMING!! The Old Duke gig recording is in the process of being mixed and then finally a new CD! (Hopefully out in time for Bude Jazz Festival!)

POST BUDE TOUR WITH JIM FRYER!

The band are delighted to be doing a weeks tour post Bude Jazz Festival with our very dear friend from New York on trombone Jim Fryer. We are even going to venture to the Midlands at another dear friend of ours Tad Newton's Jazz Club on the Sunday lunchtime (see dates below). Roade ex Serviceman's club is no longer but Tad has found a new venue at The Walnut Tree in Blisworth which are really keen to take on the Jazz Club. However, due to prior bookings for September our gig will be at The Royal Oak Inn in Blisworth – we hope very much to see you there!

Another night that will be a storming session will be the Charity fundraiser at The Pavilion, Chumleigh (See dates below for details of venue tickets etc.). This event will be to raise funds for Children's Hospice South West – I know that Jim will be really pleased to help this worthwhile charity as his own daughter Lorraine has recovered from cancer in the last couple of years.

The band and Jim also have gigs in Torquay, Teignmouth, Bude & Bishop Sutton near Bath. We very much hope that you will come along and support the band and Jim at one or all of these venues!

RIVER DART BOAT TRIPS

The band is delighted to be playing on the River Dart trips following a very successful season of their sister band Dart Valley Stompers. 1st September will see Band of Gold making their debut on the River Boat to play Jazz, Blues & RocknRoll. There is a meal included in the price of £25.00 and the boat departs from Steamer Quay, Totnes at 7.30pm. What a wonderful way to spend an evening in the late summer Good Food, Good company and Good Music – You can book on line at
