BAND OF GOLD NEWS

NEW CD – UPDATE!

The band are happy with the new recording, but we have also arranged to record The Old Duke gig on 16th May 12.30 – 3.00pm – the resulting CD maybe a mix of both recordings or we may even release two CD's this year – Watch this space!!

NEW RESIDENCY - Update

The band played to a packed audience at The Pony & Trap in Cullompton, on 27th March and it's been agreed that they will return every 6 weeks. Our next gig is Saturday 8th May – my advice is to get there early if you want a seat! We sincerely hope that you will continue to support this new venture. Parking is easy as Somerfield have a large car park just a couple of minutes walk from the pub. We hope to see you there!

JIM FRYER RETURNS TO DEVON FOR ONE GIG WITH BAND OF GOLD IN MAY

Jim has one gig with us on 22nd May at East Worlington Village Hall near Tiverton. Tickets are already on sale and are going fast – book early if you want to hear this gig. Contact John or Shelia on 01884 860756.

REPORT ON APRIL 25TH GIG AT KENNAWAY HOUSE, SIDMOUTH

The band was asked to dep for Pete Allen at his monthly residency at Kennaway House as initially Pete wasn't going to be available. As it turned out due to a change in the time, Pete was actually at the gig – and judging by the feedback he gave to the audience and to Jeremy directly I think you could say he was pleased!

He actually announced over the mic that he was going to ask Jeremy for some sax lessons and then later told Jeremy he had blown a storm and that the rhythm section had really driven the band along. Well done boys – you never fail to impress!
